About DMA Biz Champs Contest

DMA Biz Champs Contest (2021-2022) - Challenging today's leaders on tomorrow's skills!

Thinking in a digital and dynamic business world requires the abilities to think holistically, leverage the core and create the new, demonstrating the skill and the art of judicious decision making.

The contest is an opportunity for teams to discover their leadership and decision-making capabilities, while competing against other teams to achieve business goals - all in a simulated environment closely modelled on the real world.

As a participant in the simulation contest, you represent the senior leadership of a virtual firm tasked with the responsibility of taking your firm to financial leadership in a competitive market. Working in a team, you formulate and execute strategic decisions for your firm. Whilst you take decisions, you experience the implications and the impact of your decisions on the profitability of your firm. you experience the challenges of balancing long term and the short-term decisions.

While the environment will be virtual, the heat will be all real!
